Don't Trash Your Image

Events large or small can produce significant waste. For the same cost as traditional materials such as foam core and pvc vinyl, you can make your event more green with recycleable event signs, banners, backdrops and displays. It shows your guests you care. Some of the products available are:

- welcome signs and directionals
- oversized photographs, mounted or framed
- banners of all kinds
- free-standing menu signs for buffet service & bars
- table identifiers
- step & repeat banners for photo opps

“Thank you for the beautiful signs you provided for ILEA event. At the end of the night someone asked what we were planning to do with the signs. When I pointed out they were 100% paper based, everyone thought it was so cool to not have to just throw them away after one use.”

~Hugh Groman, Hugh Groman Catering

If you want to improve your event footprint, check out the examples and pricing on the following pages. We can even provide expert design so everything is on theme or on brand for your event.

Meet the Replacements:

Dispa is a 100% paper-based white display board with a smooth surface. It has the rigidity of traditional foam core, and can be cut into curved shapes with clean edges. Because of the fluted interior, it has added strength and resists bowing.

POPULAR USES:

welcome signs

table signs

oversized photographs

freestanding menu signs

table identifiers

To really wear your eco-heart on your sleeve, fluted kraft board looks recyclable and shows your commitment to the planet to everyone. A reveal of kraft can be left to frame your message and show off its inner beauty.

POPULAR USES:

welcome signs

table signs

multi-sided table tents

oversized photographs

table identifiers

Thick photo paper is a sturdy option to replace pvc vinyl banners. Add grommets for hanging, or install on various banner stands for vertical or horizontal display. Its matte finish makes it a perfect backdrop for event photos.
